

Villa Les Amis du Vent

📍 Mont Jean, St. Barts, Caribbean

Description

Bedrooms: 3 (3 King)

Bathrooms: 4 (3 Ensuite)

Max Occupancy: 6

A walk through terraced gardens of swaying palms and West Indian jasmine flowers will lead you to the charming Villa Les Amis du Vent. Ideally situated at the end of the scenic Mont Jean peninsula in St Barts, glorious views of the Caribbean Sea can be enjoyed from the comfort of your private villa paradise. Keep a lookout for the sea turtles who regularly make ripples as they come up for air in the azure waters of the nearby Marigot Bay!

Step through the unique arched doorways of Villa Les Amis du Vent, and you'll be greeted by a light and airy living space; with cosy seating areas that are perfect for cooling off after a day in the warm Caribbean sun. The fully-equipped gourmet kitchen is just steps away, inviting you to try out your culinary skills with some local produce. With the dining area just outside, entertaining is made simple yet refined.

Adjoined to the left of the living area are two suites, including the master bedroom. Reminiscent of Côte d'Azur design, each room features its own private and unique bathroom. No room is the same; carved-stone dressing tables, rain-head showers and luxe yellow marble walls are just a few of the individual features you can expect to see. An additional suite with a private bathroom is also housed alongside the fully-equipped exercise room and home theatre. Outside, the spacious terrace area opens out onto the lush gardens and glittering swimming pool; a wonderful place to while away the afternoons.

Guests at the villa will also benefit from exclusive services, including a VIP greeting, exclusive access to the island's private beaches, and priority reservations at the local restaurants.
